A World-Wide Publishing Solutions Company

This is a uniquely positioned company that has provided effective and efficient global delivery through a worldwide network of company-owned facilities and strategic partnerships since 2003.

Their unique distribute-and-print model allows them to electronically store content, manage the order process, digitally print, package, collate and distribute materials anywhere from next-door to across the globe. In addition they provide a full range of e-publishing solutions in multiple languages.

The Clark Howes Group helped the company by facilitating the opening of their UK subsidiary and Polish branch. Clark Howes continues to be their outsourced finance department. The relationship is regularly reviewed and updated to ensure that we continue to offer them a cost-effective service.

They have taken the time to understand the value of our high transaction and ensured that ‘relationship’ stays at the centre of all we achieve together. ”
